THE ADVOCATE OF PEACE, 1837, VOL. 1 (CLASSIC REPRINT) (PAPERBACK)

Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Advocate of Peace, 1837, Vol. 1 Our principles are known; and for the defence and propagation of these principles, we shall plant ourselves upon the word of God, and call upon the community to look at the subject in the light which beams from his throne. We believe the time has fully come for a direct, earnest, decisive appeal to the law and to the testimony and to this test we would bring the great questions involved in our cause, and keep the public mind grappled to the subject until its main points are all settled in accordance with the Christian's only standard of truth and duty. It must come to this; and the sooner, the better. Here is the hinge of the whole subject. It is with us a question not so much of policy as of conscience. It is a branch of our religion. It belongs to the higher ethics of Christianity. The argument from expediency is very strong; but the argument from Christian duty is irresistible. Here is the pivot of this cause. If peace be not an enterprise strictly evangelical, its principles a part of the gospel, its duties an element of our religion, essential to the full and perfect development of Christian character, we are prepared to abandon it forthwith for work more appropriate to our high and holy calling; but, if it is, then must we insist upon restoring this long lost planet to the primitive constellation of Christian graces, and press upon every follower of Christ the obligation of cultivating this grace, and laboring to render peace, just as he does repentance and faith, (to the extent with the prevalence of Christianity itself....
