He doesn't see anything wrong with being prepared and organized, and he certainly doesn't have time for such frivolous things as love. He cares for Thane, and he's certainly attracted to the witch, but that's just how the mating bond works. While his mate may not remember their previous life together, Thane Braddock has no trouble recalling every moment, right up to their tragic end. Now, he has a second chance to make everything right. Unfortunately, he's making all new mistakes this time around. Evil lurks to the west, spreading its shadow across the desert, and the races hover on the verge of war. When the Braddocks are called to answer the rising threat, Thane and Zasha's turbulent relationship will be pushed to its breaking point. Can they rekindle the old flame before it's too late? Or is history destined to repeat itself?  A Siren Erotic Romance.
