Brava. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 320 pages. Dimensions: 8.1in. x 5.5in. x 0.9in. In Sharon Cullars dazzling new novel, two unlikely lovers give in to explosive desire. But guilt and long-buried secrets could destroy their future before it begins . . . Its been five years since Lacey Burnham saw Sean Logan, and in that time her son Calvins best friend has turned from a surly youth into a handsome, self-assured young man. Crushed with grief over Cals sudden death, Lacey offers Sean a place to stay while hes in town-an innocent proposal that quickly becomes anything but. Lacey is stunned and confused by the yearning he ignites with a single kiss . . . Beautiful, warmhearted Lacey Burnham was a haven of comfort in Seans troubled youth. Now, against every shred of logic she possesses, Lacey is falling hard for Sean and for a heady carnal bliss shes never experienced before. But the ghosts of the past are waiting. And sooner or later, every shadow must face the light of day . . . Chilling and deliciously erotic by turns, an absorbing rollercoaster ride of a book -Angela Knight on Again Sharon Cullars lives in Chicago where she works as a research analyst for a professional association. In her spare time, she reads whatever she can lay her hands on, but particularly loves works that allow her to make an emotional connection to the characters. She does not limit herself to any one genre and is a lover of mystery, romance, horror and sci-fi. She also enjoys various types of music, but generally gravitates toward soft jazz. She has written several short stories, one of which is due to be published in Masques V, an anthology of horror literature. In addition to writing, she hosts the Short Stories section...
