RICHARD CANTILLON: UN MERCANTILISTE PRECURSEUR DES PHYSIOCRATES (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: French . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Richard Cantillon (1685-1734), auteur de l'Essai sur la nature du commerce en general, est aujourd'hui reconnu comme l'un des grands fondateurs de la science economique. Longtemps passee sous silence, et redécouverte uniquement a la fin du XIXeme siecle, la connaissance de l'oeuvre economique de R. Cantillon est encore aujourd'hui lacunaire. Pour servir a l'appréciation de ses merites, le travail de Robert Legrand est particulierement utile. L'auteur y presente les idees centrales de l'Essai de Cantillon et tache de les comparer aux deux grands courants economiques du siecle: le mercantilisme de Mun ou J. Child, et la physiocratie de Francois Quesnay. De cette etude comparative, Legrand conclut avec grande perspicacite que Cantillon est comme ainsi dire un trait d'union entre le mercantilisme et la physiocratie; que tandis qu'il corrige le premier courant sur certains principes comme la theorie de la richesse, il anticipe le suivant sur d'autres theories.
