

Life and Livity (Paperback)

By Ian a Campbell

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Ian A. Campbell is proud to present his first poetry collection-a set of broadly relatable writings, divided into six distinct parts, touching on universal and sometimes surprising themes that open the door to thoughtful introspection: Life-Campbell mourns and memorializes loved ones who have passed on, examining the stages of his own life and the experiences that have changed him. Love-The power of love in all its forms is explored-the romance, the melancholy, and the pride of a father for his children. Livity-Campbell expounds upon this natural life force, the truth and energy that inhabits each of us and everything around us. Violence-The cycles of aggression and victimization through history and into the present day are lamented and their personal impacts examined. Belief-Campbell s sense of awe and wonder take flight in these poems revolving around faith and family. Race-Campbell draws on his own experience as a black man in America, pointing at how far American culture still has to go to create tolerance and stability for all citizens. Some of Campbell s poems are intensely personal; others look to society...
