Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Executive Control: Building Up Your Organization Establishing Standard Performances Management Duties and Divisions Chapter I. Contributed by Mr. Feiker. The general point of view corresponds to that taken by A. W. Shaw in his book, An Approach to Business Problems, which in turn is a statement of the editorial viewpoint of the A. W. Shaw Company on management. Illustrative material has been drawn from discussions and correspondence with many manufacturers, and the chapter is a composite of their several policies as the writer interprets them. Many of the companies referred to could not be named without violating a confidence. Concerns in the following lines, however, are among those to which reference is made: electrical manufacturers (the General Electric Company and a concern in the Middle West), automobile manufacturers, an implement manufacturer, a piano factory, a navy yard, and several metal-working factories in America and abroad. Chapter II. Also contributed by Mr. Feiker in collaboration with Mr. Murphy and Mr. Porter, and in counsel with various industrial engineers who hold advanced positions in the development of organizations....
