Conservatory of Music of America reserves the right to give three public performances of the works to which prizes shall be awarded; they shall afterward be the property of the composers and authors. 5. Manuscripts shall be handed in for examination between August 1 and September 1, 1892; the award of prizes will be made on or about October 15, 1892. The board of directors asks your attention to the above, and will be grateful for such notice as you may think proper to make of the facts it embodies. Respectfully yours, JEANNETTE M. THURIIER, President. Music and Shoe Brush Hair-. --Why does a musicians hair stand on end Perhaps to encourage the baldheadcl row. Perhaps it is because of some subtle, mesmeric influence of resin and catgut. It is affectation, says a friend. It is from listening to his own horrible early discord, says another. Whatever the cause, it is, generally speaking, a fact that the hair of the orchestra has a decided upward and bristling tendency. There is no reason why a shoe brush head should attract more attention in a musician than in a waiter, observes a literary gentleman who frequents the French cafes. You will see it in one as often as in the other. It is purely foreign. I am not certain, however, that the shoebrush head is not a tuneful one. Ill investigate that. I read a right clever Southern story once about the evolution of the banjo,...
