And, lets face it: The Internet is here to stay! So if you feel you need to rely on traditional advertising, or you have very little or even no presence online this book is for you. It is a street-smart guide with a tried and true (and whats working now) approach to help your website bring in as many clients as you need or want. In other words: This is not a bunch of Geek talk or theory that just overwhelms you. After all, you have a business to run. Who wants to stay up all night (after working all day) trying to figure out the Internet, right? There are more than 673, 000 local searches on Google every hour of everyday. So right now, at this very moment, people are looking for the products or service you provide. Question is: Why arent you getting those customers to contacting you? In fact, chances are that if they did find you online it is possible there are 10-15 things on your site right now that will STOP them from ever contacting you, or finding out what your service or product can do for them. Of course these folks wont ever tell you this, mostly because they have moved on - probably to your competitors. What you will cull out of this book is exact proven strategies from many others before you, time and time again. So all you need to do is IMPLEMENT for your success! So why dont we get started step-by-step with finding you floods of clients right now - so easy, its like breathing air. Lets get going...
