

Wicked Jurupa Valley Murder Misdeeds in Rural Southern California CA The History Press

By Kim Jarrell Johnson

The History Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 112 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 6.0in. x 0.2in. The Wineville Chicken Coop Murders--a horrible 1928 national news story that inspired the 2008 movie The Changeling from director Clint Eastwood--are only the most infamous despicable deeds that have bloodstained the rural countryside between Riverside City and the San Bernardino County line. Jurupa Valley has been a region of dark doings and scandalous misdeeds for generations. The city of Jurupa Valley was formed in 2011 from the areas smaller communities, including Wineville (renamed Mira Loma to escape the shame), Pedley and Rubidoux. Buried in its landscape are salacious sagas of unchecked bootlegging, payday orgies and gruesome murders. Author Kim Jarrell Johnson digs deep to disinter the unsavory stories that have traditionally marked her home city as a resting place of enduring infamy. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
