Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Record-Evidences, Among Archives of Ancient Abbey of Cluni, From 1077 to 1534: Illustrative of the History of Some of Our Early Kings; And Many of Its English Affiliated Foundations until a very recent date, so late, indeed, as 1884, little had ever been heard or known of the archives of Cluni, and we may thank M. Leopold Delisle, Director-General of the National Library in France, for all knowledge of them in this country. Their importance for the illustration of English history, from the Conquest to the reign of Henry VIII., their value as evidence on many controverted questions, and for the elucidation of ambiguous points in history, is unquestionable, and as much too important to be overlooked, as their investigation is to be deferred to a distant future. To quote only a few instances of their value proved by recent investigation. The two first documents named on the list are the original confirmation-charter of St. Pancras, and the Inspeximus or attested copy of Earl Warenne s second foundation-charter of that Cluniac priory.
