

Matt Connell: Against a Sea of Troubles

By David M. Wolf

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 220 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.6in. MATT CONNELL, a novel of Ireland, tells of Connell's love for Dr. Sheena McDonagh and his adventure leading a 1985 peace march; it also paints a portrait of a revolutionary, Jim OGrady. The men meet at the summit of Croagh Patrick, the holy mountain; later, bullets fly. Ireland's tragic partition sets the scope of this story. Among the troubles, there is love, assassination, war, and justice. The theme is of seeking peace when it eludes the Irish people--and in the theme's larger sense--the meaning of peace for humanity. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
