And we sincerely ask that in return the reward to each of you shall be Gods richest and Heavenly blessings. We remain, dear sir, Very sincerely yours in loving remembrance, Charles H. Graham, Philip Fluchard, County Hospital, Lancaster, Pa. Pensauken, N. J. , January 11, 1905. Dear Dr. Moon: --Per request of Mr. John Clift, my uncle, 621 N. Franklin, Philadelphia, I write the following, as per his dictation: --Since my sixty-third year, now three years past, I have been totally blind. Kind friends suggested that I learn to read by the raised alphabet. Dr. Moon promptly sent Mr. Moore, a most patient teacher, to instruct and assist me in the system, and...

Reviews

I just started off reading this article pdf. It is probably the most remarkable ebook we have go through. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
