THE PROPOSED RAILWAY TRUST (CLASSIC REPRINT) (PAPERBACK)

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Proposed Railway Trust The revival of discussion concerning a railroad trust, or an inter-association of such trusts in the various sections of the country where it is supposed they might be useful, is, perhaps, a natural result of the conceded failure of State and federal legislation, on the one hand, and of the several voluntary associations among railways or railway officials, on the other, to solve satisfactorily all the problems that are involved in railway operation and management in this country. We have tried State statutes and federal statutes, State boards of railroad commissioners, Interstate Commerce Commissions, Interstate Commerce Railway Associations, Granger legislation, trunk-line pools, traffic associations, Judge Cooley and Mr. Pink, all without avail, and we begin to perceive either that the railways must contrive some new, effective, stable and equitable control of themselves, having due regard to the interests of the public and of the owners of the property involved, or that we shall presently end in absolute governmental ownership and operation.
