Reviews: Scrambled Eggs and Mashed Potatoes is incredibly entertaining and informative. The author, Herman Edel, shares outstanding bios of many fascinating people while entwining them with innovative, personalized glimpses into Edels amazing life. Lighthearted, very funny and touching! A must read. Gayle L. Van Voorhees Reading Scrambled Eggs and Mashed Potatoes was a joy. The author brings to life a series of divergent people that all face the good and bad of life in their own unique manner. There are laffs aplenty and more than a tear or two in the telling. A delightful read. James J. Gibbons Author, Herman Edel, has a unique way of looking at life. As he says, I get up each morning, take a good look at myself in the bathroom mirror, and then start laughing. The face I see has broken me up for many, many years and I am thankful for that. It allows me to look at the worlds problems with a large grin. For I know that no matter how tough things might be today, tomorrow I shall, hopefully, wake up again and find a reason to laugh. Thats what Scrambled Eggs and Mashed Potatoes is all about, having the guts to look at that mirror and laugh. No room for self pity, just a great awareness that a load of garbage will probably flow your way this day and all you can do, to maintain your sanity, is to face what comes with a large grin on your face. The world is in turmoil and has always been that way, and, in all likelihood, will always be in turmoil. If we let that get to us and dont smell the...
