THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH PRIOR TO GEORGE FOX. The history of the Christian Church, presents the record of a conflict, which, for eighteen centuries, has been waged within her bosom, between two opposing principles. --These antagonistic principles are Spirituality and Formalism; the one, divine in its origin, and addressing itself to the highest part of our nature; the other, earthly in its source, and finding an ally and a slave in the gross and sensual propensities of the human soul. Heathenism presents a melancholy instance of the workings of the formal principle, when the divine and life-giving spirit has become extinct. Those noble religious truths which occasionally shine forth in the writings of some of the early Heathen, are the fragments of a primitive revelation from the Divine Spirit to the souls of those holy men, who lived in the first ages of the world....
