CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 246 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.6in. Women have always been capable of securing their own financial futures. However many believe that it is not necessary to take charge of their money, their savings, and their finances. Many women lack the confidence to become financially self-reliant. They put off learning about investing, then wake up years later and realize that they have short-changed their own financial security. I want to prepare you for the short term and the long term. In this book, I share how to be financially savvy. I believe that women need money to achieve their goals, to take care of themselves, and to do things with and for the people they love. Here, I teach you how to create and multiply money at the blink of an eye without a lot of effort because, honestly, there really isnt much that you can do in the world without it! In this book, I empower women to be financially self-sufficient, to support themselves, and then to pass on good financial habits to their children. I teach you how to trade options, and introduce you to...
