Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from High School Geography: Physical, Economic and Regional That the better part of geography is to be found in a study of relationships is the conviction of all geographers. Only by such study can an affirmative answer be given to Jowett s question, Can geography be used to make students think? There is no subject which presents a greater number and variety of relationships than geography. It leaves hardly any field of human knowledge untouched, and is the mutual debtor and creditor of all. It is capable of yielding a purely scientific discipline uncontaminated with the worship of usefulness, and it can be made as baldly practical as the commercial spirit requires. The higher interests of education demand a judicious combination of pure and applied science. The most important thing about the earth is the fact that it is a human planet, that men not only live upon it, but make, somehow, a living out of it. The earth as a planet, a machine which goes and works, an organism which has grown and developed in...

Reviews

Without doubt, this is actually the best job by any publisher. It is written in basic phrases instead of difficult to understand. You will like the way the author publishes this publication.
