Revisiting Fatima

By Ms Susan M Hogan

Revisiting Fatima. Paperback. Condition: New. 38 pages. Dimensions: 11.0in. x 8.5in. x 0.1in. Astonishing! Finally, a publication that provides a wide variety of simple solutions, rather than lists of seemingly unresolvable problems streamed to our modern world on a daily basis. Series of concepts pieced together over time and unveiled in conjunction with unexplainable occurrences that significantly relate back to events that occurred in 1917 at Fatima, Portugal. Specifically, the book includes logical conclusions relating to: cause, prevention and reversal of environmental damage for the protection of life in all forms; root causes and perpetuation of health care challenges, with reliance for resolution utilizing abundant resources that have proven to be effective over time; examples of ways charities are, and can prosper; and reflection that can be incorporated into daily living to promote happiness and attract prosperity. To begin your journey with Revisiting Fatima for positive change, gaze at the amazing photograph on the cover which was taken many years ago in Fatima, Portugal. Fatima was the location where on October 13, 1917, over 50,000 people witnessed the sun dance in the sky. Enlarge the book cover and you will be fascinated to personally discover the masterfully intertwined faces, symbols...
