You do well to mention all in general; that if I fee more of my Glory, and for your good, to give you another, I may answer your Prayer. As I desire to be speedy, Sa I will not give all at once. I do friendly intimate to you this Will of mine. My Servant, I charge thee to pursue the same: And the Advice, and the Reproof, given to thy Sister, belongs equally to thee. See; and mend thy self. She is ignorant, and needs a Direction and Reproof; and Ihe fliall receive it from thy Mouth. But thou art more inexcusable, because thou hast known my Will long, from the Scriptures, from thy Youth; because great matters depend upon thy Person. Therefore thy...
