Reviews

The publication is simple in go through preferable to fully grasp. I am quite late in start reading this one, but better then never. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

WELL BUILT MYCENAE: 16/17: THE POST-PALATIAL LEVELS (MIXED MEDIA PRODUCT)

Oxbow Books, United Kingdom, 2011. Mixed media product. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. The post-palatial period - Late Helladic III C - is often seen as the twilight years of Mycenaean civilisation, a period of economic decline with few achievements in terms of architecture, materials or technology. Excavation in the Citadel House area at Mycenae afforded unique opportunities to explore stratified remains of this period and to define and describe its character. In this fascicule, Dr. Elizabeth French presents her full report on the remains of this period, which, sheltered within the massive 13th century BC walls, allow us to chart something of Mycenae s history in the final years of the Bronze Age. This fascicule also contains a unique account of LH III C pottery, stratum by stratum, incorporating a major study by Dr. Susan Sherratt, together with a wealth of illustration of pottery vessels. The account of the other objects of terracotta, metal, ivory, stone and bone helps us to better understand the cultural materials of the post-palatial period, while Gordon Hillman s account of the plant remains from the Granary is a significant addition to the palaeo-botanical record for the Mycenaean period as a whole and one of very few for the LH III C period. This book, which includes a DVD containing all the data from previous fascicules and an interactive index, will be an essential reference tool for the study of the period.
