

The Future Of The Holocaust - Between History And Memory

By LANG, Berell

U.S / Cornell University Press, 1999. Soft cover. Condition: New. No Jacket. In this work, the author continues his inquiry into the causal mechanisms of decision-making and conduct in Nazi Germany and into responses to the genocide by individuals and nations. He explores how history and memory shape views of the Holocaust, and how future views may alter those of today. In addition, Lang explores cultural representations of the 'Final Solution' - from monuments to public school curricula - within the Jewish and German communities. A 1st edition, in new condition. (198 pages & 14 pages of introduction).
