RECONCILING TRADE AND THE ENVIRONMENT: LESSONS FROM CASE STUDIES IN DEVELOPING COUNTRIES (HARDBACK)

Edward Elgar Publishing Ltd, United Kingdom, 2000. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English. Brand New Book. The link between trade and the environment has focused on two broad issues: how changing trade regimes have affected the environment and how stricter environmental regulations have affected trade. The answers are of particular importance to developing and transition countries where the relationship between trade and the environment has a major impact. This unique book, based on eleven case studies undertaken by research institutes...
