

Ghosts in the Landscape: Vietnam Revisited (Hardback)

By Craig Barber

Umbrage Editions,US, United States, 2006. Hardback. Book Condition: New. New ed.. 292 x 236 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. After serving in Vietnam as a U.S. Marine, photographer Craig Barber returns twenty-eight years later to a country first seen in combat. Haunted by witnessed atrocities, Barber carries his memories of war back to Vietnam to quiet his ghosts. In the Vietnamese countryside, armed only with a handmade pinhole camera, he captures images of bomb craters turned into fish-rearing ponds, parts from airstrip runways used as window grates, and shell casings functioning as fence posts. In a country where half the population is under twenty and has no memory of war, Barber's ethereal platinum prints give hope that healing and change is on the horizon. Craig Barber, known for provocative landscape photographs and recognized among today's premier platinum printers, has had over 60 solo exhibitions and has pieces in numerous collections including the George Eastman House in Rochester, the Victoria Albert Museum in London, the Brooklyn Museum of Art in New York, and the Biblioteque Nationale de France in Paris. Barber lives in New York's Hudson Valley and teaches photography workshops across the globe. Alison Devine Nordstrom, curator...
