This item is printed on demand - Print on Demand Titel. - Seminar paper from the year 2008 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies - Literature, printed single-sided, grade: 2,3, University of Münster (Englisches Seminar), course: Samuel Richardson, language: English, abstract: By its publication, the novel Pamela became one of the most popular contemporary books of that time. One of the reasons for the enormous success of Pamela might have been that more and more women got interested in literature, especially in romantic novels or religious works. All in all, the era was dominated by a commercialization of literature, the rise of the realism and of the moralistic-didactic intentions, which implicated a change of the recipients of literature. Moreover, it entailed a decline of the aristocratic ideals and a rise of the lower middle class and its moral concepts. Also characteristic for that era, as already mentioned, are the so-called conduct books, that aimed to educate the reader in the comportment in social life. Richardson, who was part of the lower middle class, with his novel Pamela is completely in step with the social spirit of...
