Systems Modeling and Architecting: Structure-Behavior Coalescence for Systems Architecture

By William S Chao

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 280 x 216 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A system comprises multiple views such as strategy/version n, strategy/version n+1, concept, analysis, design, implementation, structure, behavior and input/output data views. A systems model is required to describe and represent all these multiple views. The systems model describes and represents the system multiple views possibly using two different approaches. The first one is the non-architectural approach and the second one is the architectural approach. The non-architectural approach respectively picks a model for each view. The architectural approach, instead of picking many heterogeneous and unrelated models, will use only one single multiple views coalescence (MVC) architecture model. In general, MVC architecture is said to be synonymous with the systems architecture. Since structure and behavior views are the two most prominent ones among multiple views, integrating the structure and behavior views becomes a superb approach for integrating multiple views of a system. In other words, structure-behavior coalescence (SBC) leads to the coalescence of multiple views. Therefore, we conclude that SBC architecture is also said to be synonymous with the systems architecture. Systems architecture is emerging as an...
