Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from God With Us: An Account of the First Nine Years of the Emmanuel Baptist Church of Raleigh, North Carolina The site having been definitely chosen, a careful census was made of the territory, which was bounded approximately by Wake Forest Road on the east, Noble Road on the north, Reaves Drive on the west, and Georgetown Road on the south. This census, revealing an even greater need than the supporters of the proposed church had realized, strengthened their determination that the church should be established. The census takers gave each household a cordial invitation to the services which were soon to be held on the new site. Two more services were held in the County Home on the evenings of June 25 and July 2. The following week a tent, provided by the Association, was pitched on the new site; and on the evening of July 9, the first of a week's series of evening services was held there, with Mr. Pridgen as the preacher. In addition to the faithful workers, others came to the services, some in response to the invitation of the census takers, some attracted by the novelty of a lighted tent and the sound of gospel hymns. The curiosity became genuine interest as the services continued through the week with larger crowds attending each evening. At the end of the last service all who planned, unless providentially hindered, to join the church when it was organized came forward for a prayer of dedication. After this week, services were held in the tent each Sunday and Wednesday evening. Aiding Mr. Pridgen in these services were other ministers, the Reverend Alphonso Jordan, who had come to the...
