Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Attend this church, talk to that pastor, join this bible study group, read these religious books, take a yoga class, try meditating. When you are trying to grow your faith in God and your spirituality level, people will offer up many suggestions to you; but are any of these the right answers for you? If you ve tried some of these ideas and you don t seem to be progressing in your relationship with the good Lord, then you need to read these spiritual messages to get some clear direction for your life. God has a plan for each and every one of us; but since we are all unique in God s eyes, so too can be our relationship with Him. In one of His messages He says Stop looking for me - I m here. So stop looking and start reading what He wants you to do. Whether you are a practicing Christian or not, these messages in this book can have a profound effect on your life and how you choose to live...
