Motherland: Growing Up with the Holocaust

By Rita Goldberg

Halban Publishers. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Motherland: Growing Up with the Holocaust, Rita Goldberg, The author writes: "I am the child of a woman who survived the Holocaust not by the skin of her teeth but heroically. This book tells the story of her dramatic life before, during and after the Nazi invasion of the Netherlands in 1940." Hilde Jacobsthal was born in Berlin and arrived in the Netherlands as a young child. She was fifteen when the Nazis invaded, and when Jewish students were forbidden to attend Dutch schools, she trained and worked as a day care nurse. Thus began her long association with the Underground, helping to save Jewish children when they came to the deportation point. She fled to Belgium after the deportation of her parents in 1943, and spent a year in hiding under a false identity, while continuing her work in the Resistance. After she was liberated by the American army in 1944, she joined the British Red Cross and found herself at Bergen-Belsen a week after British forces arrived in April 1945. She had hoped to find her parents there, but learned, eventually, that they had perished at Auschwitz. She was one...

Reviews

The ideal publication i at any time read through. It really is writer in easy phrases and never difficult to understand. Its been designed in an remarkably easy way which is merely right after i finished reading through this publication by which actually transformed me, affect the way i think.
