Summary of White Trash: Includes Key Takeaways Analysis (Paperback)

By Fastreads

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Despite the recent election results in America pushing class concerns back into the limelight, the truth is that America has been struggling with its class identity for centuries. Since the time of British colonial settlement, millions of Americans have found themselves in an unwelcoming society eager to brand them as waste people and push them to the outskirts of society. Isenberg s incredibly thorough and groundbreaking book, White Trash details the long history of class in America. What Will You Learn from Reading This Book? An understanding of the ways that race and class ranking have had long lasting impacts on society in America The ways that Elvis The King can be compared to President Bill Clinton An understanding of the real reasons why Europeans immigrated to America in the 17th century The role that eugenics played in America and the potential it had to change the population forever The reasons why early Americans compared class status to breeding livestock The impacts of a long held class system on the 2016 presidential election A real understanding of the American promise that rags...
