LOVE SEED SOWN

AuthorHouse. Paperback. Condition: New. 288 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.6in. Helena Wasilowska, a famous actress, has no dreams other than to become a star of an international acclaim until one night after a beautiful performance, she received a bouquet of roses, accompanied by an invitation to have dinner with a polish Baronet named Bartos. She has had many offers by men and even lordlings, but no note had impressed her as this particular one had. After all she had the love of Zaslow, her manager and mentor, but she needed something else, she desired someone else to give herself to only her one true love. She accepted the invitation and when she arrived at the assigned place, she found the man of her dreams. Champagne and a dinner of exquisite fare lies before her. The setting was perfect, and she was enamored of this handsome man. Dinner was delicious, the wine superb, and suddenly she found herself in the arms of a man who would seduce her, here and now, and she welcomed the seduction. In all of her experience as an actress, she had given herself to no one. This was the passion she had never felt, and as he caressed her breast, she was totally and deeply lost. A loud pounding on the door, who would dare interrupt me for the Baronet was as wildly excited as she . . . Another loud knock! Come in! Bartos shouts. My lord, Bartos, I have bad news, your father the Baron is dead! Your mother summons you to her side immediately. Helena in her state of dishabille flushed, her passions running wild was wounded to the quick when the Baron abruptly left her unfilled and bereft. Thankfully he had arranged for a carriage to take her home. Confused and still..
