HERO FORGOTTEN: A BLAKEMORE FAMILY BOOK (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Abigail Blakemore is a descendant of talented female mediums and is one of the best in her own right. Law enforcement from all over the greater Seattle area seek her out to help with their toughest cases. And although some of the cops are really hot and a few have even shown some interest in her, Abby knows she needs to get out more and meet a guy who she doesn't work with. Since she spends most of her time hiding at home and conducting her mystical business via the internet, it doesn't seem likely she'll get lucky anytime soon. But a new extremely annoying ghost who has entered her life is about to change all of that. Kent Caruso, ex-Special Forces, now a highly skilled hacker at a Seattle dotcom, can't forgive himself for his wife's accidental death while he was deployed in Afghanistan nearly two years ago. Interested in the supernatural for years, he finds himself wandering into a little occult shop on Valentine's Day and smack into the sexiest palm reader in Seattle. With a little help from cousin Marty and one of his not-quite-perfect elixirs, the two fall fast into a steamy affair. What will the side effects of the potion be and will Kent and Abby's love be strong enough to prevail over the powerful Blakemore legacy? Only cousin Jake Blakemore, CEO of the Blakemore Oasis Group-a prestigious private security firm of highly skilled operatives-knows how deep those male dominated Blakemore secrets go and he won't share much of his knowledge with Abby. But he assures his cousin that if hers and Kent's feelings are true, than...
