True love lives on, for divine love is eternal. This is a classic tale of Love after Death. Vanna has died, caught in the middle of a brutal shootout with the police and a ruthless criminal, just an innocent victim cut down in her prime. But her spirit refuses to move on and remains in this dimension. She is in love with her twin flame, her dom soul, her divine destiny: Daniel. Unwilling to let Death come between her and Daniel, together they must find a way to do the impossible: Beat death at its own game. However there are forces that will stop at nothing to prevent Vanna and Daniel from being lovers in this world, in this lifetime. Will they succeed or will the balance of the universe claim her soul Can they find a way to keep their love alive What would you do for love For a second chance A romantic read that will leave you longing for such a love. -Love that feels like it could overcome the boundaries of time, space and transcend death. -W. P. , Amazon. ca Top 100 Reviewer -An unusual paranormal romance. . . Powerful; gets your perception and imagination going. -Oleg Medvedkov, Amazon. com Top 500 Reviewer How many lifetimes have I loved you Losing his wife was only the beginning for him. Dying was only a beginning for her. They were the Dom Soul, two parts of a twin soul, who loved each other through many a lifetime. The love between Daniel and Vanna was so strong that they could not wait until the next life to be reunited again. Yet, death would not give up easy...
