I hold no man accountable to that end by which they have so shewn against that great image of God. For accountability comes from the law. And if the law of God has been so written upon the hearts of man, and the conscience of man too bears witness to this account through guilt and other similar vexations; then we know that as long as man should live, all his affairs are understood under the law of God. Such that if the law comes from God, there is only one judge who should make judgment on that day that is just and righteous. But lo is the fall of Adam, which makes a generation weak and a generation foolish. As the fall is permitting no man to be of worth before the good Lord. All the anguish of the conscience has been forsaken for pleasures and the hearts of man have grown hardened. Men bearing no semblance to God-no longer in the Life of Him, grew into the darkness of Him, supposing their death. Yet God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish, but have eternal life. That he may grant men life that they may no longer see death as long as they believe in the Son who he sent, for the Son is him and he is the Son. As written of him, it were done, that the the Son fulfilled the law of man and the law of God, teaching men to render to what is of Caesar to Caesar and to render what is of God to God...
