IS THERE LIFE AFTER DEATH?: A NOVEL VIEW (PAPERBACK)

White Crow Books Ltd, United Kingdom, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Is there life after death? This question is raised by many people, both believers and non-believers alike. Surveys in the Netherlands have shown that 57 of church members (Roman-Catholic and Protestant) and 55 of the unchurched believe in a life after death.1 It is remarkable that so few members and so many non-members believe this. Even more remarkable is that in both categories more people believe in life after death than in God (40 among church members and 7 of non-members). Consider that church attenders, whenever they recite the Nicene Creed, affirm in the first line their belief in God, the Father, the Almighty and in the last line their belief in the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come . This seems to me sufficient reason to reconsider the question of life after death extensively and critically. The biblical grounds for the belief in life after death will be discussed. Other religions are also considered. In this context, I also discuss reincarnation belief that has come to us from eastern religions and that is accepted by 25 of church members in the Netherlands. Special attention is paid to the interim period between death and resurrection, a subject about which the Bible tells us little and on which most theologians remain silent. I consider therefore what we can learn from the so-called near-death experiences about which there has been much discussion lately due to the work of scientists such as Pim van Lommel, whose recent...
