Excerpt: . not follow their motions) and laid in the midst among them, but the wheels missed him, and he has no great hurt; but the run increased, and the footman, thinking to catch a bridle, was by the coach beaten down, horse and all, and hath a contusion at the side of his knee which makes him lame, and that is the worst of the wounds in this action. But the coach still running, I was impatient to be out of action or endeavour to do somewhat towards preventing the worst of mischief, put the servant in my place next her lady, and crept out secundum artem, so that I had no hurt, but could not snatch the horses for speed, but called, and the people in the town endeavoured to stop the horses, but could not till in the midst of the town...
