Julie Frayn, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Finnegan MacGillivray, red-haired, freckle-faced social pariah, finds solace in his mother s garden, while she entertains dates in his home. When an accident takes the life of a friend, Finnegan buries the evidence amid the purple dead nettle and bougainvillea, and unearths a treasure trove of human remains. Did his house rest atop an ancient burial ground? Or was there a killer tucking him into bed at night? His fascination with bones grows as fast as his obsession with his mother. She rejects his advances, and he escapes to the other side of the country. Years later, he returns to his childhood home, to the secrets and the guilt and the bones - and to fulfil his destiny.
