I would like to say a few words about such giving in general, and then I will dis-cuss each bill separately. Mr. Chairman, from spiritual counseling to rape crisis centers, charitable organizations are vital to the health and well-being of American citizens. Charity benefits both the giver and receiver in like proportions. The act of giving elevates the heart of the giver. The act of receiving elevates the condition of the recipient. Charity is thus a blessed act that should suffer no discouragement from something so mean as the Tax Code, which contains absurd yet very real disincentives to individuals willing and able to exercise the gift of charity. Such disincentives have terrible consequences in reducing the re-sources available to private organizations. And while it is hard to imagine an individual who gives for the purpose...
