

Findhorn Reflections: A Very Personal Take on Life Inside the Famous Spiritual Community and Ecovillage (Paperback)

By Graham Meltzer

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The Findhorn Foundation and Community has been famous since the 1970s for its unique spiritual beliefs and practices, such as co-creation with the intelligence of nature, work is love in action, openhearted relationships and consciousness. Much more recently it has become equally well known as a cutting edge ecovillage, one that produces its own energy, treats its own sewerage, grows its own food and develops sustainable, low-carbon architecture. This book is a collection of one member s personal reflections and observations of life inside this unique intentional community. Graham Meltzer has lived at Findhorn for ten years, having previously spent a lifetime in the communities movement as a resident and researcher. He is passionate about communal living but also brings a dispassionate, analytic eye to his writing. This book is both a love letter and a critique - a reflective insider s perspective on a fascinating social experiment. Meltzer s honest and inspiring insights on life in a spiritual community makes a very good read! (Penny Johnston) Graham Meltzer is a fantastic writer and his ideas are wonderful! (Dorota Owen) I applaud...
