

Fortune Killer (Paperback)

By Colette Brown

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . A boldly impressive foray into fiction from Colette Brown. If you can't be the best in one career then you may as well be the best in another, even if that career is Serial Killer . Faith Hope is a celebrity clairvoyant who has seen better days and is now intent on becoming Scotland's most notorious murderer. The bodies are piling up as she uses her own unique magickal and creative methods of killing. Her final target is none other than The First Minister, Sandy D Arcy. Can the police stop her in time? Or will it be down to the ghost of her mild mannered husband, her two celebrity spirit guides and an angel? Fortune Killer is a story of faith, hope and love all mixed in with greed, lust and hatred. It is a darkly humorous story of murder, celebrity, spirits and magick. Praise for Fortune Killer: Colette Brown uses considerable technical skill in fully immersing the reader in the ethereal story she has created, whilst anchoring them firmly in the real world. Such a feat is only...
