By Ian Haddrell

The History Press Ltd, United Kingdom, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. In 1897 Herbert William Rudge founded Dings Crusaders Rugby Club as a part of the Dings Club, one of the activities of the Shaftesbury Crusade, a Christian and social mission founded in the 1880s in the Dings, a notorious area of poverty and degradation in the St Philip s area of Bristol. This book tells the story of how the rugby club grew from humble beginnings to competing in the fourth tier of English rugby. The club s move to Lockleaze in 1948 established close links with the local community and schools, and the publication of this history coincides with Dings Crusaders move to a new home, Shaftesbury Park, heralding an exciting new chapter in the club s story.
