Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Benjamin Franklin's Life and Writings: A Bibliographical Essay During Thirty Years Mr Henry Stevens Has Lost No opportunity of adding to his collection of materials for the Life, Times and Works, of Franklin. Sooner or later everything saleable is believed to turn up in London, the centre of money and mutability. Here it is said most do congregate historical materials and historic doubts. At all events the present collection is a sample of what one may achieve in a single generation in London by good luck, persistence, vigilance and a dogged weakness for sacrificing other worldly gains to a pet object. Rightly or wrongly this has been done and the results are here for the first time summarized and set forth. Has the enthusiastic collector paid too dear for his whistle? In bringing it together he has exhausted his three score, and locked up his staff of life. Whether foolish or wise let another generation pronounce the verdict. The intrinsic value must be tested and measured, like everything else, by posterity's judgment...
