

Kronos Rising: Plague (Volume 3)

By Max Hawthorne

Far From The Tree Press, LLC. Paperback. Condition: New. 152 pages. Dimensions: 7.8in. x 5.1in. x 0.3in. IT HAS BEGUN The terrifying prequel to KRONOS RISING: KRAKEN (Bonus Novelette - KRONOS RISING: DIABLO) Ron's reflection glared back at him from the car's still-intact side mirror. If he had been his normal self, he would have screamed at the horror he saw. But Ron was no longer normal. He was a walking nightmare. His face had been transformed into a festering mass of sores, with oozing blisters coating his lips and chin. His hair was falling out in clumps, and scaly folds of skin had begun to form in thick layers atop his brow and across the backs of his hands. The bite wound he had sustained had vanished or, more likely, lay concealed beneath compounded layers of grime and slime that covered not only his exposed skin, but whatever remained of his torn and bedraggled clothing. Shuffling past the car, Ron made his way up the drain system's concrete slopes and emerged atop a low-lying hill. He could hear the night calling, the warm wind whistling through the palms. The outermost suburbs of the city of Miami were spread before him, a ramshackle...
