Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The First Annual Report of the Trustees of the Cooper Union, for the Advancement of Science and Art: January 1, 1860 The Tenth section of the act by which this Corporation is created provides, that The Trustees of the Corporation hereby created, shall, in the month of January, render an annual account under oath of all their receipts and expenditures, to the Common Council of the City of New York, the Associates of the Cooper Union for the advancement of Science and Art, and the Legislature of the State. In submitting their Report under this provision of the Charter, the Trustees deem it their duty in view of the general desire which exists to obtain full information in regard to the Institution committed to their management, and the objects which are contemplated in its foundation, to enter into much greater detail than would be necessary if its establishment were not so recent, and its origin so unusual. Peter Cooper, a mechanic and merchant of the City of New York, having become satisfied early in life that the working classes of this city required greater opportunities for instruction and rational recreation than were afforded by existing institutions, determined, if he could command the means, to found an institution designed especially to supply the needs, of which he himself had been conscious.
