Would he mend her damaged soul, or leave the pieces of her heart to scatter into the wind? Kathryn Thompson was no stranger to heartache and pain. Divorced from her first husband, and left a widow by her second, life had left her a shell of her former self. Focused on the impending wedding of her daughter, the last thing she expected was a tall, beautiful man to upend her orderly, but empty world. James Michael Erickson was everything a woman could want. Sexy. Handsome. Successful. A devoted father. And from the moment he watched her walk into the restaurant, he knew she was the woman for him. But James was a temptation Kathryn wouldn't give in to. She couldn't afford to be broken again.
