

The Visitor s Report: The End . and New Beginning of the Human Race (Paperback)

By Robert Vanderzee

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Approaching the universe and the fate of the human race in an extraordinarily unique way, The Visitor s Report stands apart as a terrific addition to any reader s collection. Written for anyone with even a slight interest in world events, science, or UFOs, this provocative book uses the concepts of string theory, intelligent design, and extraterrestrials to examine humanity s future and to answer the question, why do bad things happen to good people? With its intriguing concepts and contemplative nature, this mesmerizing book will keep readers thinking long after the cover has closed. The Visitor s Report will make readers everywhere think seriously about reality, especially civilization with its faults and flaws, and will leave them wondering where it is headed. Urging readers to think about evil in our world and why it s with us, Vanderzee asks whether anything can really be done about it. Starting with the tentative beginnings of the human race, its flowering into civilized society, its termination, and finally creation of its replacement, and why the process happens, this thought-provoking book will leave a lasting impact..
