By New Jersey Adjutant-General's Office

Forgotten Books, United States, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Annual Report of the Adjutant-General of the State of New Jersey: For the Year 1865 Sir: Being required by law to report all proceedings relative to the military force ordered by the Commander-in Chief, upon requisition of the President of the United States, together with the general state of the militia, as also any improvements to advance the discipline and benefit of the militia, I beg leave to submit the following report of military transactions through this department since the date of my last annual report. The clerical force has been much reduced, and it is expected to reduce the business of this office to a peace footing at an early day. The duties of the office for the past two years may be classed under three heads. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. A fresh e book with a brand new point of view. It is definitely simplistic but surprises in the fifty percent of your ebook. Its been designed in an extremely basic way and is particularly just soon after i finished reading this ebook where in fact altered me, change the way i really believe.
