Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . They can't believe this is her life. Everything she fought so hard for in her relationship seemed to come to a crashing halt once the revelations of Qyree's family were out in the open. From his mother dropping the news that she was HIV positive to Jaxon removing Qy from the family business, all they wanted to do was be there for her man. But the secret that she was now hiding could very well cause even more damage and possibly be the end of her happily ever after. Just when he thought God was giving him a chance to become a better man, Qyree is hit with news that rocks his world to the core and causing him to let go of the one thing that was keeping him sane, Qy. Qyree knew that the way he had reacted towards the only person who had his heart in their hands wasn't right but he didn't know of any other way to deal with it except the way his father had taught him. Protect himself and just let everyone else figure it out on their own. It wasn't right but what could he do? It isn't until his mother falls ill and even more secrets are out that cause him to really take a look at the man that he saw in the mirror. Would these new twists cause him to finally stand up and be a man or had Jaxon tainted him for life? The Bible says that life and death are in the power of the tongue but the same thing can be said about the heaven between a woman's...
