Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Decorative Textiles: An Illustrated Book on Coverings for Furniture, Walls and Floors, Including Damasks, Brocades and Velvets, Tapestries, Laces, Embroideries, Chintzes, Cretones, Drapery and Furniture Trimmings, Wall Papers, Carpets and Rugs, Tooled and Illuminated Leathers The main text of my book is of course weave. The word is Latin for weave, and as might be expected, it is produced most richly on the loom. It is of weaves the most distinctive quality, and when applied to other materials such as wood, marble and brick, iron, bronze and gold, paint, paper and cement, is merely a borrowed and imitative term. Consequently, while keeping design and pattern and colour and their historic development constantly before me, I have in every chapter accentuated the importance of weave. I have shown that texture is not only the quality which distinguishes weaves above other materials, but is also the quality which distinguishes weaves from one another. It is the quality which distinguishes a damask from a brocade, a plain weave from a twill, a satin from a madras, a velvet from a burlap, a domestic carpet from an Oriental rug.
