CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 146 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.3in. Leslie, Ace, Emma, Drew, Yanni and Sam are all back with a brand new load of drama. The pressures of adulthood weigh heavier on them when the whole crew has to band together to take care of Leslie and brand new baby Layla, and try to figure out a way to get Ace out of prison. All except for Yanni. Jealousy and envy gets the better of her when seeing baby Layla, and the attention that she doesn't get from Sam leads her down the wrong road and into the arms of someone no one would expect. Vick is yet done with Emma and Drew is boiling on the inside. He wants to get rid of this dude but he and his girlfriend have bigger fish to fry when her anxiety and memories of her rape won't allow the couple to be intimate. Is it too much for Drew to stay in a relationship with her, and will he throw in the towel and leave her for good Sam, without Yanni, is forced to the edge when he finds out about what she's been doing in the dark and he may be in line next to catch a case, a body or a new bitch. Whichever comes first. With Ace behind bars and had heard no word from his father, he tries his best to keep his thoughts at bay when feeling like there's more that his woman is doing that she's not telling him. He worries that she's in dangerous territory and that there has to be some way for him to come home before something could happen to her. Will his fear tear the goon and goonette apart...
