Mascot Dilemma (Paperback)

By Diane Edwards

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Three girls and three boys with differing ethnic backgrounds, personalities, and interests form an unlikely bond and unwavering friendship as they join together to help their fellow friends, school, and entire community! Despite being the new girl in middle school, Castle quickly finds herself volunteering to help the not-so-popular boy create a mascot uniform. She also faces having to choose being friends with a friendless, shy girl vs. the popular group of girls. Then out of nowhere, her locker gets trashed with a single clue left behind exposing the popular girls as the culprits. After she confronts the popular girls shredding any chance of friendship, the quirky boy with the locker next to her admits to being the locker-trashing perpetrator! She enlists his help and his sport-fanatic sidekick to solve the Mascot Dilemma as punishment for his crime along with the shy girl. One popular girl sides with Castle instead of the mean, popular girls, so that makes five of them now on the mascot mission. And then enters the rich kid who is surprisingly more helpful than boastful. The...
